

The Gaelic Society of Vancouver

September Newsletter

Mark your calendar and save the date!

November 23, 2019 @ 1:00 pm

Hello

As the summer comes to an end, and hope that you have enjoyed your summer. It's now time for the 2019/2020 Cèilidh events to start again.

The Society held its Annual General Meeting on June 27, and the following were elected as officers for 2019/2020 term:

Chief	Doreen Smith	Secretary (Membership)	Iain MacIver
Immediate Past Chief	Daryl Hutchings	Treasurer	Erin Brinkman
Sr. Chieftain	Iain MacIver	Auditor	John MacLeod
Jr. Chieftain	Deborah Walker	Bard	Maureen Lyon
Custodian	John MacLeod	Piper	Ed MacIlwaine
Secretary (Correspondence)	Irene McKinney	USSAL/SCCS Directors	Iain MacIver Doreen Smith

We welcome Deborah Walker to the Society, both as a member of the Society and as an officer.

Gaelic Society Upcoming Events:

- November 23 – The committee is currently working the programme. Presently, the return of Cary Grigg, fiddler will provide a selection of toe tapping music. Watch for the next newsletter for further information.
- Future Cèilidh Dates - Information/details will be forwarded at a later date.

Other Upcoming Events:

- October 5, 2019 - Skerryvore, October 5, 2019 @ 7:30 pm, Centennial Theatre, North Vancouver. You may have seen them in Oban in 2015. Comprised of eight multi-talented band members from diverse areas all over Scotland, SKERRYVORE are now on a meteoric journey since their debut as a cèilidh band on the remote Hebridean Isle of Tiree. In just a few years of international touring, and 6 albums with innovative chart-smashing hits, the group is widely acknowledged as Scotland's most promising young band and one of the country's top musical ambassadors.

If you are interested to see Skerryvore, Society members have been offered a 'Special Rate'. For further information please email to chief.gaelic@gmail.com, or by return email.

- Gaelic Language - Lessons are scheduled October 19 – November 23. Please contact John MacLeod @ vancouvergaelic@gmail.com to register.

As with any membership, it is also time to renew for the low price of $10 per year. To renew your membership, click here.

The Committee look forward to seeing you during the 2019/2020 cèilidh season.